

Privacy statement / A.S.F. Fischer BV

In this privacy statement, A.S.F. Fischer BV explains how it treats personal data obtained through our contact with you. A.S.F. Fischer BV complies with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Collected personal data

We do our utmost to protect your data. We need personal data in order to guarantee our service provision towards you. A.S.F. Fischer BV processes this personal data because you make use of our services and/or because you provide such data to us.

A.S.F. Fischer BV processes data for the following purposes:

- carrying out deliveries of our goods;
- invoicing our deliveries;
- sending our newsletters;
- processing your orders and informing you on the progress of those orders;
- taking measures to improve our service provision;
- providing (product) information or offers.

We do not share your personal data with third parties.

Newsletters

Via email, we periodically send our digital newsletter to our customers and other interested parties. The newsletter is sent solely to those who have indicated that they wish to receive it. Each issue of the newsletter contains a link through which the recipient can immediately deregister. We use our subscriber list solely for sending our own mailings. We store your personal data on the servers of MailChimp (our email program, which of course is GDPR-compliant). MailChimp takes your privacy as seriously as we do and never share your data with third parties.

Sharing with others

A.S.F. Fischer BV provides data to third parties solely if this is necessary for the execution of our agreement with you or if it is required due to a statutory obligation.

Inspection and modification of data

You are entitled to request to inspect your data and/or have it corrected or deleted. This can be done by contacting our sales department (see details below). To prevent misuse, we will ask you to identify yourself adequately.

Modification

This privacy statement is subject to modification. Any modifications shall be made known on this page.

Should you have any complaints or simply wish to contact us, this can be done by means of the following telephone number and email address:

A.S.F. Fischer BV
Sales Department
(0320) 28 55 44
sales@asf-fischer.nl